

Beverly Ann Cranek

July 25, 1933 - May 10, 2006

Beverly Ann Cranek, born July 25, 1933 in Hays County, Kansas was carried to the Lord on angel's wings on May 10, 2006. Ms. Cranek belonged to the Lady's Society at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church and was also a member of the church bowling league. She was employed as a special education teacher's assistant for 17 years and loved all the children she worked with as much as her own children and grandchildren. Ms. Cranek was a devout Catholic and always had a kind word to say. She is loved and will be missed by all who knew her.

Survivors include three daughters, Donna McBroom and husband Ronald of Carson City, Nevada, Lisa Cranek of Savannah, Georgia, and Jennifer Cranek of Fairfax, Virginia; two sons David A. Cranek and wife Angela of San Antonio, and John W. Cranek and wife Penny of Virginia Beach, Va.

Three sisters, Marilyn Hopper and husband Clarence of McKinney, Betty Corbett and husband John of El Campo, and LaVerne McAdams of Houston; a sister-in-law, Dorothy Weems of Richmond, Texas. Other survivors include her grandchildren Heather, Samantha, Tiffany, John Jr., Joshua, Candice, Sarah, David, Thomas and Grand-Pet Buster, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.
