

Beverly A. Lambert

October 10, 1948 - March 5, 2026

Our beloved mother, Beverly Ann Lambert, was born on October 10, 1948, in San Antonio, Texas, and entered into eternal rest on March 5, 2026.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Cecilia Moss Davidson and Robert Paul Davidson; her sister, Cathleen Ann Harber; her aunt, Rose Marie Cree; and her grandmother, Annie (Hillock) Moss.

Beverly was a loving and devoted wife of 36 years to Rick Lambert, mother to Tammy Virga and Jon Virga, Richard L. Reynolds Jr. and Jami Reynolds, and stepmother to Autumn Garza, Richard Lambert II, and Diana Lambert.

She was a proud grandmother to Jonathon King, Katelyn Denley, Caelan Denley, Noah King, Bethany Riley, Jacob Riley, Ariana Garza, Braeden Reynolds, Aiden Garza, Madilyn Lambert, Morgan Virga, and Nathan Virga. She was also a loving great-grandmother to Mercedes King and Marshall King and eagerly awaited the arrival of Kasen Denley.

She is also survived by her cousins, Nancy Henderson and Billie Cree; her brother-in-law, John Harber; her nephew, Michael Harber and Valarie Harber; Greg Lambert and Roxanne Lambert; great-nephews John Charles Harber and Andrew Harber; and great-nieces Amy Lambert, Kelly Lambert, and Jourdyn Lambert.

A true testament to her family's love, Beverly received a kidney transplant 20 years ago from her daughter Tammy. She faced every challenge that followed with courage, grace, and determination, continuing to embrace life with joy, faith, and devotion to her family. Her resilience and spirit inspired all who knew her.

Beverly will be remembered for her faith in Jesus, her unwavering love for her family, and the kindness, strength, and warmth she shared with everyone whose life she touched.

“Well done, good and faithful servant.” – Matthew 25:23
