

Bill E. Nichols

April 14, 1929 - March 14, 2017

Bill E. Nichols

April 14, 1929 – March 14, 2017

Bill E. Nichols, a native and lifelong Texan, passed away at Stone Oak Methodist Hospital in San Antonio on March 14, 2017, he was 87 years old. He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Jency, two daughters, two sons, six grandchildren, three great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

A veteran of the United States Air Force, he began working in the oil fields of West Texas. He moved to San Antonio in 1957 taking a position as a salesman for Alamo Cement Company. This began what would be his lifelong career working in various fields and aspects of the construction materials industry. He was an active participant in the construction industry in San Antonio and was an active member of local civic and industry organizations. His love of this industry led him to follow his entrepreneurial instincts by founding and operating two successful national manufacturing businesses. Mr. Nichols was an avid golfer and a longtime member of Fair Oaks Country Club. His love of golf and travel took him and his wife on numerous Caribbean cruises over their many years together.

Mr. Nichols was laid to rest in a private graveside service held at the Mission Park North Cemetery on March 20, 2017.