*My husband's father has lived next door to Billey and Merril for around 40 years. We moved in to help Jeff's father in 2014. That is when we became friends, more than just hello now and then. Ms. Beautiful Billiey, shining light, always a smile, and positive, uplifting conversations as we sit on the front porch in good weather. She was a devote Christian that lived her spiritual path daily. When my husband's father passed last year, Billey was a great comfort as she spoke of Our Dear Lord. So many inspirational true stories loved to hear in her sweet voice. We know you are in Heaven with Merril, and all of us may look up and see a new bright star in the sky. May all who knew her feel at peace and have comfort that Billey is united with the love of her life. Amen

“ I met Billey through the C.O.P. citizen patrol group in our neighborhood. She and Merrill were hard workers, such a devoted couple, great travelers and great readers. After Merrill passed away, she and I spent many hours going through her photo albums (especially England), and she was so kind and generous with my two youngest granddaughters. Billey was one of a kind, and I'll really miss her.

“ Billey was my Aunt, married to my Dad's brother. We had many family Christmas' together at our Nana's home. In later years, she was a good resource as I dug through our Family lineage. She recalled quite a bit from conversations over the years with our Nana. Always enjoyed hearing the many stories of she and Merrill's travels. She lived in the same neighborhood as my family and we would see she and Merrill at family gatherings for birthdays or graduations and as they drove the neighborhood as part of the community watch program. Sincerely, Judy Moxon Feuge.
