

Billie Rhea Fimple Grothues

December 14, 1948 - June 3, 2025

Billie Rhea Fimple Grothues, 76, of San Antonio, TX, passed away on Tuesday, June 3, 2025 from a tragic car accident. She was born on December 14, 1948 in Phoenix, AZ to Marcus and June Fimple. She was a mother, aunt, grandmother, great grandmother, and great aunt.

Billie is survived by her four children, Tammie Retherford, Marc Grothues, Robert Grothues, and Rebecca Durham, her five grandchildren Victoria Winborn, Hayden Winborn, Mya Grothues, Susan Durham, and Vincent Grothues, her great grandchild Athena, and her nephews, Patrick, John, and Charles Fimple and their children. Billie joins her ancestors, parents Marcus and June Fimple, her brother Tommy Wayne Fimple, her daughter Susan Rhea Grothues, and her grandchildren Camille, Anthony, and Elizabeth in eternity.

Billie was a joyful soul who liked having fun. She would socialize with anyone, accepting people—flaws and all. She dedicated most of her later years helping her son caretake his family, providing support and warmth. Despite her stubborn streak and complexity, her heart yearned for love and acceptance since she struggled with her own insecurities throughout her life. For this reason, Billie never wanted anyone else to feel the same, so she encouraged others to embrace their uniqueness. Her laughter and enjoyment of people left a lasting impression on those who knew her or even met her briefly. The way Billie lived her life reminds us all to find joy in every moment, including times of deep sorrow.
