

Billie Sue Painter

October 10, 1925 - January 13, 2015

Billie Sue Buchanan Painter died peacefully at her home in Castle Hills, Texas at the age of 89 on January 13, 2015.

Billie Sue is survived by her son Frank Lee Painter II and Daughter in law, Pamela Eva Rinkle Painter of San Antonio, Texas. She was grandma to 3 grandchildren, Frank Lee Painter III wife Jami Fischer Painter of New Braunfels, Texas, Kristol Eve Painter Tabor husband Casey Taber, MD of Alamo Heights, Texas and Samuel Painter of San Antonio, Texas. She was also GG to 5 great grandchildren: Ashlyn Martinez, Scott Painter, Luke Painter, Beau Taber and Kennedy Taber.

Billie Sue Painter was born in a farm house outside of Floresville, Texas, to Mildred Hughes Buchanan Stone and William C. Buchanan, on October 10, 1925. She graduated from Brackenridge High School and lived most of her life in San Antonio, Texas. At 16 years old she began a long career as a civil servant. First as a messenger girl riding a scooter then, working her way up to the special weapons division at Ft. Sam Houston, with a ranking of GS12. She was a single mother raising her only son, Frank Lee Painter II and a very inspirational mother-in-law.

Visitation will be at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North on Sunday, January 18, 2015 from 2pm to 4pm. Funeral Services will be at Mission Park Funeral

Chapels North on Monday, January 19, 2015 at 9 am. With burial to follow at Fairview Cemetery located outside of Floresville, TX. Pastor David Kasischke will be officiating. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Billie Sue's life.