

Bin Moon Ng

March 11, 1925 - December 11, 2015

Bin Moon Ng, born in San Antonio, TX, March 11, 1925, was quite unassuming and humble in his accomplishments. He was an Aggie all the way graduating from Texas A&M as an industrial engineer. He worked over 40 years with distinguished awards in combined military and civilian federal service. As a project leader in electronic intelligence, he gathered information and set up computer systems. For a priority project Electronics Security Command Alert Center he received the AF Meritorious Civilian Service Award. His greatest achievement was how he loved and cared for his family. Bin was a servant in his church, serving the Lord as treasurer, church council member, teacher of adult and youth Sunday School, ushering and even cleaning. He will be remembered too as the weekly grass mower until he was 80.

He is survived by his wife Kim Quan Ng and siblings Sam Eng, Betty and Bill Chinn, Alice Yee, Mamie Wong, Kung and Fing Ng and Mary Jo Lew; children Christina and Wayne Yee, Eugene Ng, Jana Ng, Madelyn and Ling Lock; grandchildren Caleb Yee, Thomas and Tori Yee; Ryan, Evan and Kate Lock; 14 nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the First Chinese Baptist Church of San Antonio 5481 Prue Rd. San Antonio, Texas 78240
