

SMSgt. Blas T. Martinez, USAF (Ret.)

February 3, 1925 - January 17, 2021

SMSgt. Blas T. Martinez, USAF (Ret.) passed away Sunday, January 17, 2021. He was born February 3, 1925 in Sabinal, Texas to Jose E. and Mariana (Torres) Martinez who preceded him in death.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Charlotte; his sisters, Sister Lilia Martinez, STJ, Juanita Martinez, Cecilia Martinez, Teresa Gonzales, Sister Rose Mary Martinez, MSSA, Sister Lelia Martinez, MCDP and brothers, Jose Martinez, Celso Martinez, Ignacio Martinez, Telesforo Martinez and Francisco Martinez. What a party in Heaven it must have been when all siblings were united in Heaven on the evening of January 17th.

Blas is survived by his children, Edward Martinez and his wife, Katherine and Marika Ashmall and her husband, Joseph; two grandchildren, Geoffrey Golombek and his wife, Melissa and Katherine Golombek and partner, Anthony Solotes and four great grandchildren, Guenevere Kennedy Golombek, Gabriel Ryan Golombek, Camryn Rose Cuzzacrea and Amara Hannah Solotes as well as numerous nephews and nieces.

Blas left Sabinal as a young man and joined the Army Airforce at the end of World War II. It was in Germany where he met the love of his life Charlotte and brought her home to the United States as his wife. They celebrated over fifty years of marriage until her death and through it all raised two children, numerous animals and traveled the world together. Blas loved the Lord as well as his family and will be greatly missed.

We thank the support of those at Huebner Heights for their diligent care. Please send memorials to Missionary Servants of St. Anthony, 100 Peter Baque Rd, San Antonio, TX 78209 c/o Sr MaryAnn.

Blas will be laid to rest beside his wife, Charlotte at Queen of Heaven Cemetery in Lockport, New York.

Cemetery Details

Queen of Heaven Cemetery

Lockport, NY

Events

Details are pending.