

Blayne Alan Hopkins

December 28, 1957 - October 8, 2023

Blayne Alan Hopkins, born on December 28, 1957, a devoted son, brother and uncle, went on to his Eternal Reward on October 8, 2023 at the age of 65. Blayne served with both the U.S. Air Force and U.S. Army. He is well known and beloved for his service to the people in his Villages of Westcreek neighborhood as a landscaper, handyman, and jack-of-all-trades. “ Blayne was a sweet, quiet kid I first met in elementary school. Over the years, he grew into a kind and helpful man who cared deeply for his family and was dedicated to helping them.

You can't do better than that.

“ Blayne was such a caring person. I remember him always opening doors for me, always asking if I needed a sofa or water and always asking about my family. He took wonderful care of my mother's lawn and gave her a poinsettia every Christmas. His generosity and kindness has set an example for me to always give more than you get. Rest in peace my dear friend and know that you were loved.
