

Bob Latimer

January 28, 1918 - October 23, 2014

Charles Robert Latimer, 96, of San Antonio, TX, known as Bob to friends and family, passed away peacefully on October 23, 2014. He was born on January 28, 1918 in Lohn, TX. He attended the University of Texas where he studied architecture and met his beloved wife of 76 years, Corine Bland Latimer. He proudly served in the United States Army during WWII in the Philippines. After serving his country, he studied business and worked in Civil Service at Kelly Air Force Base. Among his many duties and talents was writing speeches for the Generals. He retired after 33 years. After retirement, he continued to pursue his talent in writing and published a novel and a children's book. He had many passions in life. His family will fondly remember him in his garden and on the dance floor. He also loved carpentry, and among his many projects, he designed and built two summer homes. Bob also had a passion for fishing. His grandchildren, and great-grandchildren have had the privilege of fishing with him and learning from him. He also enjoyed hunting in Central Texas where many of his great memories were born. Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Charles Alfred Latimer and Tishie Huffman Latimer; his brother George Latimer and sisters Mary Marshall, Marie Marshall, Donna Marsden and Betty Kensing. He is survived by his wife Corine Bland Latimer; his sister Emma Ferguson; two daughters Judith Stahl and her husband Roy of San Antonio, TX, Charlotte Hays and her husband David of Sunrise Beach, TX; six grandchildren, thirteen great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren. Visitation will be from 6 pm to 8 pm on Monday, October 27, 2014 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Graveside Service will begin at 1:45 pm on Tuesday, October 28, 2014 at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery with Military Honors. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warriors Projects.
