“Daddy, sorry it took so long to write. I’ve come to a small conclusion after spending the last couple days looking at pictures, reminiscing, and taking a second but not final look at your adventurous life. You are a man of many trades, many talents, many friends and you have a family who loves you beyond explanation. It is said there is no good or bad life, that there only is life....I beg to differ. I am witness to one of the greatest storybook lives ever. I believe you mastered it like no other person I know. I am and always will be honored, proud and appreciative to call you my father. Stronger than Tennessee whiskey, harder than American steel, last of a breed for sure, yet gentle as a South Texas sunrise. I listened to you, I learned from you, proudly...I am you. I will miss your presence but you and all of your adventures will forever be in my heart. It is also an honor to carry your name as you have with pride and dignity. As you have tipped your hat to many, I tip my hat to you. I’ll meet you at the fountain when I see you again. I love you dearly daddy.

Your devoted son,
Proudly Bobby Smith Jr.

“ My Brother Bob was a good man with a big heart. In good times and bad times you could always count on him to be there for you. He was a real cowboy and lived by his cowboy values and a strong faith in God. A husband and father who worked very hard to provide for the family he loved so dearly. We all loved him very much and will carry him in our hearts forever. I will miss him everyday.
