“ I've known Lisa for 35 years. "Dad" was always a kind man. I never saw him angry or heard him speak negative. He always looked the same...he only got grayer over the years.

He loved his family, especially Lisa, with all his heart. He made sure they were taken care of. His eyes lit up when he held his granddaughter. He loved watching the kids play. He was a devoted family man. He was the dad that you wished you had. He was what every father should aspire to.

He will be missed. He will be remembered. He will always be loved.
