

Bobby L. Lucas Sr.

September 15, 1941 - February 13, 2023

Bobby Lee Lucas, Sr. was born on September 15, 1941 in San Antonio, Texas to Robert and Alice Lucas. He went home to Jesus on February 13, 2023. He grew up in a time where hard times and the love of a close family shaped him into a hardworking dedicated man. He was the first and only member of his family to earn his college degree, which helped encourage his children and grandchildren to achieve higher educations. He worked many jobs over his lifetime but being called to Pastor and Evangelize were his most important and the ones he was most dedicated to. He was able to reach many people across the country and was always ready to share The Gospel, leading hundreds to Christ. He was imaginative, creative, and complex. He was a self published writer and songwriter.

Bob is survived by his wife, Theresa, Son Bobby, Jr and wife Janice, his daughter Penny and husband Charles Corte, son James and wife Kim, daughter Debra and husband Cleatis Crain, and step son Troy and wife Wendy Smith. His grandchildren are Christy (Crain) and husband Kevin Anders, Tasha (Lucas) and husband Jason Jackson, Candice (Corte) and husband Steve Hodges, Elizabeth Lucas, Audrey Corte, Nathaniel Lucas, Chelsea Crain, Joshua and wife Nikki Lucas, Alyssa Crain, and Madison Smith, his great-grand children are Emily Goode, Annabelle and Colt Jackson, Quinn, Polly, and Hiro Hodges, his sister Alice (Lucas) and her husband Mike Jacobs.

He is predeceased by his parents, brothers Tim, Gerald, and Clarence, grandson Lucas Corte, and step grandson Josh Goode.

“ We had lost contact with Bobby for a few years since one of the Lucas reunions and then we saw him again when he married our friends, Cheryl and Pat Murphy at the Baptist Church in Hallettsville. It was a surprise! We didn't know he was a preacher. It was a wonderful service and we had a nice visit. He was a very kind man who I am glad I had the opportunity to know.

Theresa and family, please know that we grieve with you and that our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
