

Bobbye Delavan

December 21, 1926 - January 25, 2013

Our dearest Bobbye Delavan passed peacefully into the hands of our Lord on January 25, 2013. She was deeply loved by her family and many friends. Anyone who met her fell in love with her loving and generous nature. She had a special quality which endeared her to all who were lucky enough to know her. Bobbye and Coleman Delavan generously helped raised other people's children with much love and generosity. For many years she worked with her husband Coleman in their trucking business, Texas Construction Service Company. She treated all employees like family, preparing special meals, and always planning Christmas parties with presents for all the children. Bobbye was born December 21, 1926 in Yorktown, Texas where she lived with her mother, Ruby Wofford and her brother, Thomas Lee Wofford, who have both preceded her in death. Bobbye moved to San Antonio in 1945, where she worked at the radio station KMAC. That same year she met her future husband Coleman Delavan, they married March 31, 1947. Bobbye and Coleman were happily married for 65 years. Bobbye is survived by her husband Coleman Delavan; son Benjamin Allen Justice; sister-in-law Corinne Breitbach; nieces, Shannon Loeffler, Bobbye Schanen, June Pape, Michelle Belden; nephews, Duke Delavan, Michael Delavan, Marshall Delavan, and John Rogers. Coleman Delavan and family would like to thank all the nurses and doctors of Methodist Hospital for their warmth and love in caring for Bobbye.
