“ Our family trips to Vegas were the best. He would drive until he got tired and we would all take turns. He would let me drive all of 30 Minutes and laugh and say mom never mind I'll drive. I remember when he had us die his hair like bakugan and it came out pretty good. He had the biggest heart and was so emotional. When we saw Makena and Momi born we both cried when they came into the world. He loved his babies and my daughter with all his heart and for this he will be in my heart forever
