

Brenda Catherine Van de Riet

February 9, 1943 - November 28, 2008

Brenda Catherine Van de Riet, devoted wife, mother and grandmother passed away on November 28, 2008. She was born in London, England on February 9, 1943. She spent her early years in Ipswich, England with her mother and her four younger siblings. She met her husband Bob when he was stationed in England with the U.S. Air Force. After completing their tour in England, she moved along with her husband and their son Mark to San Antonio, TX. Brenda loved being a wife and mother but when Bob retired from the Air Force and Mark finished High School she decided to go back to school and pursue a career in Special Education. During her career, she worked in the Edgewood, Coldspring-Oakhurst, and North East School Districts. Her greatest pleasure in life was spending time with her family but she especially loved to be with her grandchildren, Ryan and Victoria. Brenda is survived by her husband, Bob; her son, Mark and his wife Rose, and their children: Ryan and Victoria, and her siblings, Russell, Roger, and Linda.

In accordance with Brenda's wishes there will be no public service.

Tribute Wall

TH

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family. I am a friend of Mark's from high school. It was a pleasure of ours to have known Mrs. Van de Riet. We will always have happy memories of her, she was truly a wonderful person. She will be missed. Our prayers are with

Tony Hernandez - January 23, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MG

“ Brenda was a good friend when we worked at Redland Oaks together. She will be remembered as a very caring, loving person. She often shared family stories, showing her love of each of you. I ache for your loss of her. Prayers are with you.

Marilyn Green - December 14, 2008 at 12:00 AM

MF

“ My deepest sympathy is extended to you Bob and her family in the loss of Brenda. She was a joy to work with at Redland Oaks Elementary for many years. I lost touch with her when she moved and did a lot of traveling. She left us with many treasured memo

Mary Friesenhahn - December 10, 2008 at 12:00 AM