“ To the Pacheco Family: words cannot express my sorrow for your loss. I lost my Mother 3 years ago, so I know what you are all going through. Mr. Pacheco inspired me to be all I could be while I was in the Army. I re-enlisted to go to Airborne School and become a Ranger just like him. I am sorry I lost contact with Mr. Pacheco over the years but that is another story for another time. Time...and Jesus...heals all wounds. Put your faith in God that He is here right now in your time of grieving and loss. Know that Mr. Pacheco would want all of you to continue to live your lives to the fullest, as he did, and not be burdened with grief and sorrow all the time. Take comfort in knowing Mr. Pacheco was an honorable Man, you are all better people for having had him in your lives for so long. In Jesus' name I pray you all come to know peace and comfort in your time of mourning. Amen.

“Dad, so proud of your accomplishments in you life, you’ve been an amazing father, always been there for me especially when I needed you the most! You’ve taught me to be strong, to never give up because god will always make everything ok & lead the way! I love & miss you so much dad, I’m trying so hard to be strong for you, my heart hurts so bad with an emptiness that I cry myself to sleep 🙏
Love you forever my guardian angel,
Your “Army Brat” daughter, Belinda❤️

“ Our condolences and prayers of comfort to Dora and the Pacheco family. We will miss our friend brig. He will be remembered for his commitment and dedication to his wife and to his lifetime membership of the alamo silver wings airborne association. he was a proud veteran. He also loved his pride and joy his red truck, his oldies music and lemon pie. The lord had a plan for brig and took him to his new home in heaven. Brig is now at peace and he no longer will be tired of tolerating his health issues. Thank you brig for your friendship while you were here on this earth with us and until we meet again. You will be missed but never forgotten. Airborne all the way.
