

Bruno Dzanski

July 19, 1930 - April 26, 2022

On April 26, 2022, Bruno Dzanski, a father, mother, friend, veteran, and a Texan left Earth for the Glory of God. He was an amazing and loving father who cared for his children deeply. He left an impression on everyone who had the good fortune to find him at the B&D. He never was one to boast because he did not need it. His stories are many and his legend everlasting. Because of generous and caring people like him, the world is a better place. He is survived by his daughter Rhonda, son in law Frank, his daughters Dacrie and April, his step-sons Randy & Brad, Bill & David, and niece Sharon and family. You are invited to attend the Funeral Service at Dellcrest Funeral Home 2023 S. WW White Rd. at 11:00 a.m. May 5, 2022. Interment will follow at San Fernando Cemetery II 746 Castroville Rd. with Military Honors. Following the Interment the family will host a Memorial at the B&D, 1004 S. Alamo. The Family invites and encourages you to make a donation in Memory of Bruno Dzanski to your favorite animal shelter.
