All the memories we made will forever hold a special place in my heart! Being able to have had a good time with you that night and knowing you were having a great time helps some... although it shouldn't have been this way, I know you're in a better place my little cousin! Love you forever! #LLB ❤️*

“ I miss you more than anything in the world bry. I miss our random road trips. I miss how spontaneous you were. I miss your contagious giggle and beautiful big smile. I'm so happy we met at 8 years old. The 12 years I got with you were the best years. You truly were my brother and I am so heartbroken without you. One day we will meet again. Until then I love you and you will be missed brother.

“ I have so many memories with Bryan and from meeting him as a freshman he was a sweet, kindhearted, and funny guy. He reminded me so much of my brother especially since he was a boxer from the same place as my brother. He was always texting me and making sure I was okay. He would always play basketball at my neighborhood park and come over to my house after to eat. He was a friend I didn't need to talk to every single day to know he had my back because whenever I needed someone to talk to, he was always there. Every time I had invited him somewhere to some event, it didn't matter where or what, he made his way there. I'll always keep you and your family in my heart and prayers. Love you Bryan ☐

“ I remember the day that Bryan took me to go get my first car. I had jus gotten off work and he picked me up, took me to my bank to get the rest of my money, took me home to get showered, and then we were off to go purchase my first vehicle. He knew how much it meant to me buy my first car, after all Bryan would pick me up from work some days , pick me up at night and let me use his own car at time all while asking for nothing in return. He did it out the kindness of his heart and till this day I still don't know anyone who woulda done what he did. Your the reason I don't walk anymore bro, so every step I take from here on out is for you lil brother. I love you with all my heart forever and always till my last breath ❤️

“ You were a big baby Bryan! Your poor mom, we were walking to the beach and she was all pansa! Not to long after that walk you joined us here on earth. Now you have returned home and even though we would have preferred many more years, we are grateful for the 19 years we had you in our lives. We love you Bryan ❤️
