

Caitlin Judith Guerra

March 7, 1997 - May 16, 2004

Caitlin Guerra

Our little Angel Bunny has been set free. Caitlin has fought a brain tumor for 7 years. She did not loose that battle however, she has won in every way. The tumor is now dead and she is the one living. She fought the courageous battle and now she has victory in Jesus. Please come and celebrate her life with us. Please, no black and no suits. She was such a colorful and carefree little girl, let's honor that. She is survived by her mommy and daddy, Robin and Michael Guerra; brother, Spencer Guerra; sister, Megan Guerra; Nanny and Papa, Grandma and Grandpa Reus; Grandma and Grandpa Bean; Great Granddad, Libby; Aunt Nana and Nana, Aunt Nannon; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. The family would like to offer special thanks to Uncle Mahendra and Dewah-wah, nurse Nancy, Kathy, sister Madeline, all of the nurses, therapists, N.I.S.D. teachers and staff, and the entire Santa Rosa Hospice staff.

Services

Visitation will begin at 6:00 p.m. today, May 18, at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A celebration of her life will be held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, May 19, 2004 at Oak Hills Church 19595 IH 10 West with interment to follow at Mission Burial Park North. A gathering will be held immediately following the graveside service. If so desired, contributions may be made to help with funeral expenses.

Tribute Wall

AN

“cay Cay - a strange series of things led me here... not sure what to say, but we miss you and love you.”

---

Aunt Nannon - January 11, 2008 at 12:00 AM

DN

“On behalf of the Directors & Staff of Mission Park Funeral Chapels North we want to extend our condolences and heartfelt sympathy on your loss.”

---

Directors & Staff at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North - May 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM