“ I was lucky enough to have Mr. Eichler as a teacher when i was much younger than I am now. He taught me to "never believe everything you hear not matter whom it comes from." He was an inspiration for me and clearly many of students over the years. I wish I could have said thank you for him for helping me become successful.

My thoughts are with him and his family.

“Mr. Eichler was truly one of my most favorite teachers of all time. He was one of those teachers that made you love a subject, because of the teacher not the subject. He took a true interest in me and my future, we stayed connected long after sophomore biology, my entire time at TR. Even after, when he was involved with the botanical gardens we would go visit him.

When I first moved back to San Antonio in 2004, my wife and I married that same year and bought a house in Northwood. We would often run into Mr. Eichler at the HEB on Nacodoches and talk for 20 minutes. Great man, I was thinking of him just last week wondering if he was still with us.

Reading the memories is inspirational, he impacted so many lives, so positively.

My most heartfelt condolences go to his family and friends, his was a life well lived, you should be very proud.

“ I was lucky enough to have Mr. Eichler as a teacher for three years in a row....9th grade Science, 10th grade Biology and 11th grade English. He was also my brother's teacher several years earlier. While I had a few good teachers, he was the best, by far. Always made learning fun and you actually wanted to go to his class and make him proud of your efforts. He was always challenging his students to be the best they could be. Fun times in his classroom. I have often thought about him over the years and wondered how he was doing. Rest in Peace, Mr. Eichler.

“ There will be so many good things said about Cal. I can not begin to tell you the debt I owe him. He counseled me and turned me from a C-D student to an A-B student. He cared deeply about his students. I respected him so much that I stayed in touch with him throughout the years I spent in the military and would send him things from my travels. I will miss our phone calls. RIP buddy, I hope to see you down the road.

“ To this day this man has made the biggest impact on my life. I wanted to give up, throw in the towel and say to heck with my education. I stuck it out, and I’m entering my 18th year as an English teacher. Mr. Eichler’s passion for his students’ success and love for his profession will be forever in my memory. Thank you for your inspiration!

Mr. Eichler was amazing. He was the only teacher I had that could read my cursive writing. He was funny, smart as hell, and he challenged many of us to to step it up a couple notches. Thank you, and rest in peace, sir.

“ I actually had Mr Eichler for English. He was an outstanding educator. I appreciated his wit and instruction. Definitely one of my best high school teachers. I always think fondly of the day he whistled Madam Butterfly in class while Mr Martin was in the room! Godspeed.
