

Calvin M. Inman

July 25, 1924 - January 27, 2007

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

SG

“ Mr. Inman was my journalism teacher from 1968-70. I graduated in 1970. He impacted my life greatly. Because of his encouragement and support I attended college and pursued my dream to be a police officer. I recently retired as a Chief of Police here in Wa

---

Sam Granato - May 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

LV

“ Please accept my sympathy on your loss. I was a student of Mr. Inman at Holmes High School in 1980-82 on both the Gavel and the Justice. I contribute much of my success back to Mr. Inman. He took the time to work with us students. He had the patience

---

Lt Col Robert Vance - March 05, 2007 at 12:00 AM

HW

“ *Mary Lou,
May the comfort of the Lord surround you at this time.
Harold*

---

Harold L. Wise - February 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CN

“ I am so sorry for you loss!

I graduated from Holmes in '83 and my husband in '80. I never had Mr. Inman for a class but I will always remember his smile and that he really cared about the lives he was touching.

*God Bless you,
Cathy Beuershausen*

---

Cathy Beuershausen Nelson - February 02, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JT

“ Mary,
Carol and I are so sorry for your loss. Cal was a wonderful person and teacher. I am so glad that you two had time together after both of you retired. Cal had a lot of influence on the kids at Holmes and will always be remembered. If we may be o

---

Jim and Carolyn Terrell - February 01, 2007 at 12:00 AM

FR

“ To the Family: On behalf of the members of the San Antonio Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution, please accept our sincere condolences for the passing of our Compatriot Calvin.

---

Frank Rohrbough - February 01, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DG

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I was a student of Mr. Inman's at Holmes and he was an outstanding teacher. I have fond memories of his yearbook class. I have carried some of the lessons of that class with me throughout college, career and life in ge

---

Diana Arguello Garza - February 01, 2007 at 12:00 AM

RT

“ It has been a delight to have served your family during these last few days of Mr. Inmans life. I just read the stories on the internet sent by friends and family. It just goes to show how special a husband God gave you. Thank you for the honor of allo

---

Rev. Edward A. Tello - January 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

YL

“ I was saddened to hear the news about Mr. Inman's passing. He was my yearbook teacher for 2 years at Holmes High School. My sister had him before me, loved him just the same, and encouraged me to take his classes. Of course, I took her advice and found

---

Yolanda Lopez - January 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

AG

“ Dear Mary,

Please accept my deepest sympathies. I can only imagine how special Cal must have been. I've seen him through the eyes of his wonderful and loving wife.

Your former student and later colleague,

Anita Stephens Glass

---

Anita Stephens Glass - January 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

CB

“ Dear Mrs. Inman,

I extend my deepest sympathy on the loss of your husband. I was a student of his in 83/84 at Holmes High School. I will always remember how patient he was with us and forever willing to share his knowledge. He touched a lot of lives.

---

Christina Faur Barabasz - January 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Please accept our deepest sympathy on Cal's passing. I taught at Holmes High School with Cal for only four years, 1968-72, but during that time ne never failed to make every day brighter and do everything he could to help a very young teacher along the w

---

Sue Bentsch - January 31, 2007 at 12:00 AM

ED

“ Dear Mary, Brad and Lesa,

Although I only met Cal at the 50th Wedding Anniversary celebration, I was inspired by the love that poured throughout the room from family and friends. My father, Henry Riemenschneider, really wanted to be able to attend, bu

---

Ellen Durbin - January 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BJ

“ We are the lucky ones that have always lived close to Hill City and got to be with Uncle Cal and Aunt Mary every summer for me, since childhood. When summer rolls around this year, there will be a sadness in "the gulch" like we've never felt because some

---

Brad Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ I met Cal back in the 1960's. We worked together for a couple years, then we went our seperate ways. In 1995 we went on tour to Costa Rica where we got re-acquainted. Cal & Mary have been very dear freinds ever since.

Cal was one of the nicest persons I

---

Jack & Elaine Chipman - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

AJ

“ Ever since I was old enough to realize how special of a person Uncle Cal was, I will remember him in many different ways. I will always remember him as my "Birthday Buddy." He was everything anybody could ask for! Every year people look forward to their b

---

Andrew Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BJ

“ The two most things I will remember about Uncle Cal is when I would go up there and he would welcome me like I was his son. I remember the day that me and him snuck out of the house so no one else saw us I think and we went out to the garage and he showed

---

Bryce Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

HR

“ Dear Mary, Lesa, Brad and all your family members,
Sharing your burden of grief, thinking of you with deepest sympathy in this time of loss,
Henry and Ellen and family

---

Henry Riemenschneider - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

KJ

“ Dear Aunt Mary,
I don't know what to say. Uncle Cal can never be replaced. We will all miss his wit & humor, his kind soul, and his caring lessons about life. He always knew what to say. We love you Mary. As always, Rio, Tucker, and I look forward to sp

---

Kitty Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

MI

“ Cousin Cal was one of the greatest, if not the greatest person I've known. He always made Art, me and the kids feel so welcome and loved. Art and I had the priveledge of traveling with Cal & Mary some. What fun we had! Now Cal & Art can continue their cri

---

Marge Inman - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DW

“ My first "encounter" with Cal was somewhere around 1935. He had been at the ranch helping my father, DeRae Wallace. Miles and Agnes and Margaret came out from Ardmore to take Cal back to town for school. He told me he would be taking my little sister ba

---

Donald Wallace - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ God truly blessed us when Brad, our son-in-law, married our daughter, Brenda, and brought Uncle Cal and Aunt Mary into our lives. From that union, a special bond of friendship began for us. The joys of summertime fun and visits to the Hill City cabin fo

---

Bruce & Virginia Conlee - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

KJ

“ Dear Aunt Mary,
I don't know what to say. Uncle Cal can never be replaced. We will all miss his wit & humor, his kind soul, and his caring lessons about life. He always knew what to say. We love you Mary. As always, Rio, Tucker, and I look forward to sp

---

Kitty Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

KJ

“ Dear Aunt Mary,
I don't know what to say. Uncle Cal can never be replaced. We will all miss his wit & humor, his kind soul, and his caring lessons about life. He always knew what to say. We love you Mary. As always, Rio, Tucker, and I look forward to spe

---

Kitty Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

TJ

“ Dear Aunt Mary,
Uncle Cal taught me a lot of things. He taught me how to fix stuff. I will always remember Uncle Cal measuring us kids on the back porch. Uncle Cal cared for my friends that I brought to the cabin. I will miss him.
Love you Aunt Mary fr

---

Tucker Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM

BJ

“ Dear Aunt Mary, Uncle Cal was a wonderful and loving man who will be missed tremendously. He will always be remembered to me as the "King of Cribbage". There will definately be a void in hearts of people who knew him. I will always treasure sharing the

---

Brenda Johnson - January 29, 2007 at 12:00 AM