

Calvin Otto Stapper

October 6, 1925 - September 9, 2015

Calvin Otto Stapper, age 89, of San Antonio, Texas, went to be with our Lord on Wednesday, September 9, 2015. Calvin C.O. was born on October 6, 1925 in Cibolo, Tx. to Otto and Nola Stapper.

Calvin served in the Merchant Marines during World War II and returned home to San Antonio to begin his 43 year long career at Kelly AFB as a civil servant. After retirement, Calvin became an Air Force Consultant for many companies for 10 years.

He and his beloved wife of 54 years, Marcella loved to travel and took many trips all over the world including 19 cruises. They were wonderful dancers and went to many Polka dances and festivals. Calvin also enjoyed fishing and boating spending many days at the coast and the area lakes. He belonged to the San Antonio Ski and Boat club for many years and loved to watch his son Wayne perform in ski shows and competitions. He also loved to ride his motorcycle taking Marcella on many trips. Most recently he became an avid poker player and loved playing with his many friends at Casa Helotes.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Marcella Mae Wesch Stapper. He is survived by his only son, Wayne Stapper and wife Mary; granddaughters Erica Stapper Eavenson and husband Everett and JR Stapper Oviedo and husband Noah, great-grandchildren Trey, Braydon, Kate, and Eli Eavenson; Townes and Casey Oviedo; brother in law Vince Wesch and wife, Audni; sister in law Ann Scates; sister in law Judy Wesch, and numerous nieces and nephews.
