

Candelaria Garcia Prado

February 7, 1911 - November 9, 2005

Candelaria Garcia Prado, 94, devoted disciple of God, Jesus and Our Lady of Guadalupe entered into eternal peace on November 9, 2005. She was born in San Benito, TX on February 7, 1911. She worked in the fields during her youth. Most of her adult life was spent as a seamstress for Lauterstein's Uniform Company where she worked on King Antonio's regalia for many years.

She received the most minimum of education and because of this she encouraged her children to attain college degrees. She often said to her children, "Work with your mind, not your back." Her family was the most important part of her life. She will always be in our thoughts, our prayers, and our hearts. She was predeceased by her parents, sister, brother and loving husband of fifty-five years, Guadalupe Prado. She is survived by her daughter, Gloria E. Trevino, son, Lee Oscar Prado Helen, and 10 grandchildren: Virginia Farjadian, F. David Trevino Lina, Tracy D. Leija Thomas, Helena M. Zimmerman Ken, Michael Prado Isabel, Deborah Shook, Nancy Henderson William, Stephan Prado, Margo Bennett Richard, John Prado Gloria. She also leaves behind 25 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren.
