“ The Alexander's were my parent's dearest friends. Always there for anyone in the neighborhood. My fondest memories are of seeing Mr. Alexander leaving for work dressed so professionally in his dress shirt and tie. He kept it up well into retirement. A

“ Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard his call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way
