What a guy. I've known Carlos for about thirty years and developed a friendship when we sat on a few boards together a long time ago. He had a keen insight of how things work and how to get things done. We would call each other out of the blue after not talking for years to catch up and trash talk. He was just one of those people that you could bond with immediately. I'll miss him for sure.

“ We always had very interesting conversations during our Hispanic Chamber meetings. Sometimes other folks were concerned about our different interpretations but we each thoroughly enjoyed our different views & respected our willingness to challenge. I will always lovingly miss him & our thought provoking discussions. Judy Gates
