“ My deepest condolences to Charlie's wife Emily and family. I'm privileged to say that I had the opportunity to gig and play with Charlie for many years. He was a great Bass player and also Loved his singing. He was always a down to earth gentleman and always gave me good advise, personal and musically. I will miss him dearly, but I know God called him to heaven. Rest in peace my musical brother and keep jamn' up in Heaven. 🎸🎵 God Bless you and your family..... until we meet again, Amen 🙏🌹👉📧

“ Chale was an uncle and a very good man. I know without a doubt he is now in the presence of God. That's one of the things we always talked about "God". Him and his family were the ones I remember going to church with went I was little. He even played his guitar in church, a few years ago I found out he played in the Royal Jester not sure why I never knew that... But I know my Chale was a great man, wonderful husband that truly loved my Aunt Emily, Cindy and Carlos Jr. and his wonderful grandchildren and great grandchildren. Him and my aunt Emily were my parent's best friends. I will always be extremely grateful for the times they would take my parents on little getaway with them. I know my parents will miss his driving, conversation and all wisdom that he shared with them and me. I love you uncle Chale and you truly will be missed. Until we see each other again. Now play for your Heavenly Father in Heaven. Blessings Rachel

“ I started playing guitar with bands on the early 1980's and he was one of the first musicians I met. He always showed me Different things and was always patient. We played last year and he was still a giant of a man. Just a few months ago I found out we were cousins. Godspeed my friend.

“ Carlos was a wonderful neighbor and friend. He welcomed our family when we moved in across the street. He often waved and stopped to talk. He spoke of the Spurs, the weather, his beautiful wife Emily, and his family. During the pandemic, the pair would go for rides in the car to get out of the house. They came back with big smiles and could be seen talking with so much love. Our children enjoyed seeing Carlos and Emily outside. The world stopped for a moment and our neighbors were "real people" we saw while in quarantine with respect to social distancing . Our kids waved and screamed hello from across the street. Carlos would wave and then look over to Emily to tell her the kids were greeting her too. We saw Carlos outside often, in his chair, checking the mail, landscaping, watering his grass, oh my he took pride in his yard. He was often accompanied by his Emily. We always admired the companionship and love they shared for each other every day. We will greatly miss our friend Carlos.
