“ Carlos wasn't just Kaitlyn's best friend — he was family to all of us. For 11 years, he stood by her through everything — the good times, the hard days, and every moment in between. He was there for the birth of her children, when they were sick, and when she needed a friend the most. He brought laughter, love, and light into our home and spent so many holidays with us that it will never feel complete without him.

We loved him deeply and will miss him beyond words. Thank you for sharing him with us — he will always hold a special place in our hearts.
