“ You will forever be missed. I will never forget how without hesitation u took me in kept a roof over my head and food for me to eat. Sometimes u could be mean but that was ur way of being funny u used to call me blondie and I'm so dark there was no way I could be blonde. That always puts a smile on my face. You were there for me and my grandma when no one else was u helped her take care of me and made sure I had what I needed and for that I thank u deeply. When I had my son you loved him very much and you and grandma would babysit for me and my son loves u very much. We all love u and miss u.!

My Deepest Condolences goes out to the Richie Family. Mr. Richie was a very kind hearted man & friend I had the pleasure of knowing and having for a neighbor. My boys had so much fun going over to play pool or just hang around & play with Will. If Gilbert & Joe had the chance they'd stay over till night time. Lol. May you Rest in Peace Mr. Richie. May God keep The Richie Family in Prayer 🙏

Our deepest heartfelt condolences to the entire Richie family on the loss of your family member. Talked to Freddy today and he sends his love and his condolences. Freddy said he was a wonderful man and they were always welcomed at his house to play pool and party. He will be greatly missed. Love you all...
