

Carmen Julia Dager

May 13, 1942 - October 9, 2024

Carmen Julia Dager: loved and known by so many, age 82, went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, peacefully on October 9th, 2024, in San Antonio, Texas.

Carmen Julia was born on May 13th, 1942, in Mayari, Cuba.

She was born to Rafael and Miguelina Lara, of Mayari, Cuba who have preceded her in death. She is survived by her only sibling, Rafael Lara, whom she would always lovingly refer to as "Mi hermano Papi."

Carmen Julia is preceded in death by her beloved husband, Edilberto, with whom she celebrated 60 years of marriage a month before his death. They met and married in Cuba in 1962 during the Cuban Missile Crisis. They had three daughters in Cuba before migrating to the United States in 1970, in search for a better life and freedom.

She is also survived by her three daughters Yamile Dager, Yasmin and Roger Leyton, and Yelina Dager.

Grandchildren: Kristoffer and Claudia Leyton, Joshua and Ashley Leyton, Yessikah and Duron II Cutbirth, and Nathanael Leyton. Great grandchildren: Adaleine, Addison, Everleigh, Duron III and Aryeh.

She was known for her passion to share the word of God to anyone she came in contact with, firmly believing that the only things you take to Heaven are people.

We know that she is now residing in her Heavenly home and enjoying her reunion with beloved husband Edilberto, in her Eternal residence and waiting for us. She will be missed immensely and will live forever in the hearts and memories of those of us who knew and loved her.

“ I was very sad to hear about Carmen Julia passing. I was one of the many people that she lead to Receive JESUS as Lord and Savior so many years ago as a young mother with two baby girls expecting my son she became an amazing friend to my family and a teacher of Gods word. I can say that she was a blessing from God. Her family along with her three girls were walking examples of what serving Christ truly is they lived what she preached and that was a testimony in real life. I have cried thinking this world has lost her but I know without a doubt where Carmen Julia is and she is well and visiting with all the angels she led to Jesus. Yasmin, Yeli, and Yami you have my deepest sympathy And prayers for Peace. I Love Y'all
