

Carmen Goldbach-Miner

September 13, 1915 - January 23, 2006

Mrs. Carmen Goldbach-Miner passed over into the hands of the Lord at approximately 7:20 p.m., January 23, 2006 at the age of 90. Born on September 13, 1915, Carmen was very active most of her life. She first worked for Joskes Dept. Store third floor Linen Dept., downtown, after WW II where she met her first husband of 33 yrs. Francis J. Goldbach. After leaving Joskes, where she was a member of the 25 yrs. club, she got her license in real estate, and worked for Guy Chipman for 22 years, then semi-retired. With her first husband and their family, she enjoyed many years of camping, fishing, square and round dancing and many other strenuous activities. After Francis death in 1982, a year later she met Jim Miner at church. Three years later she married him. With her second husband, Jim, she enjoyed many more years of camping and travel in their large motor home. After only 15 years of marriage, he passed over in January of 1999. Carmen is survived by her son, Richard D.R. Goldbach; daughter, Yolanda Ann Brendler; grandsons, Joshua D. and Jeremiah J. Goldbach; sister, Helen Schweickhardt; and numerous nieces and nephews. Until we see her again, she will be sorely missed by all who experienced her extreme love of life and people. May God keep her in his good graces.
