

Carol Henderson Clark

November 7, 1943 - March 19, 2019

Carol Henderson Clark went to be with her Eternal Savior on March 19, 2019, at the age of 75. A life-long resident of San Antonio, Carol took joy in life's simple pleasures, whether being with family, enjoying an outing with friends or taking care of her kitty, Ginger. She especially enjoyed the excitement of the holiday season. Carol will be missed by all who came to know and love her. She was predeceased by her husband, Charles Clark, her parents, James and Jean Herff Henderson, and her sister, Joan Kyle Coleman. Carol is survived by her niece, Jean Lassen, and nephews, Lee and Warren Kyle and her cousins Juanita Herff Chipman and Carolyn Herff Kennon. She leaves behind many relatives and friends including her caretakers of many years, Mike and Mary Knabel, and visiting nurse, Heidi Dennis.

Graveside services will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South at 11:00 AM on April 10, 2019.

“ Carol, as part of the AHHS Class of 1962, her note for 45th year Reunion said:
of her future plans..."service to the Lord. Pray for people, Telephone and write encouragement notes for anyone who might need them."

In Chaps she enjoyed yelling at pep rallies and doing flash cards. She said that her rewards were making good friends for life.

Carol will be missed much by many well beyond just her family.
