

Carol Esther Smith Fisher

September 3, 1940 - August 10, 2014

Carol Esther Smith Fisher, beloved wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, sibling, friend and sister in Christ, entered into eternal rest on Sunday, August 10, 2014.

Born September 3, 1940 in New Britain, CT to Edward O. and Dorothy C. Smith, Carol attended Northfield School, Northfield, MA founded by D.L. Moody and later received her RN diploma from Grace – New Haven School of Nursing, a division of Yale Medical School.

On August 25, 1962 she married Herman "Bud" Fisher, Jr. Their life journey encompassed living in four states prior to arriving in San Antonio where the couple resided for the last 40 years.

Dedicated to the profession of nursing throughout her life, Carol retired in 2006 after 25 years on the staff of Methodist Hospital.

Carol's house and friends were blessed through her creative and artistic abilities expressed in quilting, cross stitch, knitting and stained glass.

As one who loved people and her community, she served on the San Antonio Rodeo Hospitality Committee and the Western Art Committee and also served for several years as an Ambassador at the San Antonio Airport.

A long-time member of University United Methodist Church, Carol was active in the Believer's Class, the Prayer Quilt Ministry and the Quilters Guild.

Surviving Carol is her husband Herman 'Bud' Fisher, Jr., daughter Ann Ruth Brashear and her husband John and grandchildren Amy and Matthew, son Kenneth O. Fisher and grandchildren Ryan and Samantha, and her mother Dorothy C. Armistead age 102.

The family offers special acknowledgement and thanks to Dr. Ronald Drenkler MD, & Ms. Gail Hutzler RN, of the START Center, Dr. Steven M. Abbate MD, and Dr. John W. Thomas MD, for their care and compassion.
