January 5, 1925 - May 31, 2006

HANCOCK

Caroline Carol Isabell Hancock went to be with the Lord on May 31, 2006 at the age of 81. She was born on January 5, 1925 to Antonio and Antonina Santos in Honolulu, Hawaii. Her and her family survived the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Carol met her husband of sixty-one years, Wallace G. Hancock, Jr., while he was in the Navy stationed at Pearl Harbor. They married December 3, 1944 in Honolulu. Carol has resided in Texas for the past 50 years and in San Antonio for the last 25 years. Before making San Antonio her home, Carol resided in Corpus Christi. She worked for the Corpus Christi and Northside Independent School Districts, retiring in 1980. Carol was an outgoing, strong, proud and beautiful woman, whom possessed many wonderful qualities that she shared with all that she came in contact with. She loved her church, family and friends and enjoyed exercise classes, bunko and dolls. Carol faithfully attended Saint Francis of Assisi Parish in San Antonio. She will be missed by those whose lives she touched. Survivors include her beloved husband, Wallace G. Hancock, Jr.; her children: son, Wallace Hancock, Sr. and his wife, Kathy of Jersey Village, Texas; daughter, Elizabeth Liz Hancock of Marion, Texas; her grandchildren, Staci Rohde and her husband, Randy of Everett, Washington, Wallace Hancock, Jr. J.R. and Ryan Hancock of Jersey Village and Dawn Wiederstein of Marion; brother, Edward Santos and his wife, Jo of Honolulu, Hawaii, as well as many loving nieces, nephews and friends.
