“ Carol was always such a sweet lady. Our kids sang together in the Beethoven Kinderchor many years ago. She always made a point to come say hello and visit. She loved her family and I know her kids will miss her. So sorry to hear she is gone.

We are so sorry for your family's loss of your beautiful mom. David, you did such a good thing to live with your parents, allowing them both to remain in their own home until their passing. Sending love and prayers to you, your family, and Carol's caregiver, Thomas.

“ As Carol's Caregiver, I got to spend a lot of time with her and come to love her dearly. Here's a pic I took of Carol a few years ago. She loved her stuffed animal friends. She's holding her beloved fox in this picture. She always dotted on her stuffed animal friends and had quite a menagerie.

“ I was Carol's Caregiver for the past 8 years. Spending time with her, I noticed she still retained her creativity even with her Dementia. One time when she was eating her lunch while I did the dishes, she made up a little story: "They just wanted everybody to be happy. And then he smiled." When I heard her say that, my heart smiled. Such a sweet, sweet, kind woman.
