With heavy hearts and deep gratitude for a life beautifully lived, we remember

Carolina as a wonderful mother whose love and strength shaped everyone around her. She was the heart of her family, a devoted mother who loved her children unconditionally and stood as their steady rock through every season of life. Her home was a place of warmth, comfort, and wisdom.

Carolina was a good listener who always made time for others, offering thoughtful advice and gentle guidance whenever it was needed. She was well known for her cooking, filling her kitchen with delicious meals and her home with laughter. Family and friends were always welcome at her table, and she took great joy in bringing people together.

Her faith was the foundation of her life. A devoted Bible reader and faithful prayer warrior, Carolina trusted deeply in God and prayed often for those she loved. Her quiet strength, compassion, and unwavering faith were a source of comfort and inspiration to many.

Her life was not without hardship. As a young girl, she endured a difficult childhood that included long days picking cotton. Those early struggles helped shape the hardworking and resilient woman she became, carrying that strength with grace throughout her life.

Carolina also had a special love for plants and found great joy in caring for them, nurturing life wherever she could. More than anything, she cherished her family and friends. Her love was steady, generous, and unwavering. The lessons she shared, the prayers she lifted, and the kindness she gave will continue to live on in the hearts of those who knew her.

Though she will be deeply missed, her family takes comfort in believing she is now watching over them—our guardian angel, forever present in spirit and love. Thank you for a life filled with love, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

Her legacy is one of faith, strength, kindness, and unconditional love.

“ Rest in peace my beautiful cousin. I will miss our lengthy conversations of days gone by. She was a strong, independent Christian woman who loved her children and grandchildren. Her faith in our Lord guided and strengthened her every day. Vaya con Dios hermosa mujer ❤️
