“ Aunt Carrie always lived her life to the fullest. I don't think I ever saw her NOT smiling or laughing. She was the most welcoming person...always danced her way to hug you. Such a beautiful soul. I know you livened up Heaven just a little bit more! Give my Papo a hug for me and tell him I miss him...

*Love you and will miss you!

“ My most sincere condolences to the family. I've admired and respected this beautiful and caring lady ever since my childhood. She was a great example to all the neighborhood kids by assisting us as the School Crossing Guard in the very dangerous 900 block of N New Braunfels Ave. Mr and Mrs Villarreal helped make the community a safer place for us all. I last saw them at the VFW 9186 dancing arm in arm. Reunited, they are surely dancing arm and arm once again. God Bless you Mrs Villarreal and now you can rest in peace.

“ Great Aunt Carrie had the best smile and laugh. She was an amazing hostess for parties and had the gift of making everyone feel welcome. I'm sure there's dancing going on in heaven and saw dust on the floor for the polkas. -love and miss you, great niece Sharon Pelayo Simonick ❤️
