Carolyn Wright Bellamy

December 10, 1923 – February 25, 2018

Known to many as “Tinky,” Carolyn passed away Sunday, February 25th. Carolyn was born December 10, 1923 to Blanche Neigher and Mark Jackson Wright. She was a lifelong resident of San Antonio. She graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School, and was a proud member of the Lassos. Carolyn attended Baylor University, and returned to San Antonio, working at Ft. Sam Houston during WWII. She met and married an Air Force pilot and the love of her life, Lt. William (Bill) Bellamy.

After the war, Bill began his newspaper career at the San Antonio Express and News, and later at The Light Publishing. Carolyn was devoted to her family, which included William Bellamy III, Linda Bellamy Marquis, and Russell Bellamy. She adored her seven grandsons: Adam Bellamy (Amber), Jason Bellamy, Jeremy Bellamy (Jackie), Andrew Marquis (Caroline), Matthew Marquis, Ben Bellamy (Jessica), and William Bellamy IV. She is survived by her five great grandchildren and her daughters-in-law Karla Bellamy, Charlotte Bellamy and son-in-law Bryan Marquis. She was predeceased by her sister, Dorothy Leske, her brother, Mark Wright, her beloved husband, Bill and son, Russell.

In past days you could find Carolyn playing on the SACC golf course or Thursdays at the Duplicate Bridge table. She was an excellent cook, gardener and seamstress. Dancing to Big Band music and humming the songs of Glenn Miller, Tommy Dorsey and Frank Sinatra will be a treasured memory!

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Alamo Heights United Methodist Church at 825 E Basse Road, San Antonio, TX 78209.

For personal acknowledgement, you may sign the online guestbook at www.missionparks.com in the obituary section.
