

Carolyn Williams Carter

September 20, 1916 - August 12, 2021

Carolyn Williams Carter passed away peacefully on Aug. 12, 2021 at the age of 104. She was born in the home of her grandfather, J. B. Wilson, in San Marcos, TX to Perrin Glenn Williams and Novel Wilson Williams on Sept. 20, 1916. Soon after, her father bought 70 acres of land four miles south of Lockhart and started a dairy farm with Jersey dairy cows. She attended Southwest Texas State Teachers College in San Marcos, TX. Husband, Royce E. St. John, her second husband, John H. Turner, her third husband, Tiller E. Carter and her daughter, Mary Nell St. John Miller predeceased her.

She is survived by her loving stepdaughters Mary Turner Brady (Patrick) and Kay Carter Paletta; stepson Michael Carter (Donna); niece Glenda Williams Croom (William); four grandchildren and eight grandchildren.

Her room was filled with her cross-stitch samplers and needlepoint pillows. She attributed her endurance through a long life filled with love and inevitable losses to her strong Christian faith.

Carolyn knew no strangers and enjoyed everyone she met. She had a wonderful sense of humor that delighted her family and many friends. She will be remembered as a beautiful lady who treated everyone with kindness and love.

The family is grateful to the staff at Golden Hearts Luxury Senior Living for their special care given during the last months of Carolyn's life.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, August 19 at 2:00 PM, Sunset Memorial Park, 1701 Austin Highway, San Antonio, TX 78218.

Memorials may be sent to Stone Oak Presbyterian Church, 20024 Crescent Oaks, San Antonio, TX 78258.
