Carolyn R. Diaz

September 27, 1945 – October 28, 2018

Carolyn R. Diaz born on September 27, 1945 went to be with the Lord on October 28, 2018 at the age of 73. She is preceded in death by her father Claudio Rodriguez and her brother, Leonard Rodriguez. Survivors include her loving husband of almost 56 years, mother Julia Enriquez Mora, daughters Laura Diaz (Raul); Sandra Zamora (Xavior); grandchildren Anthony Diaz (Heather), Stephanie Diaz (Dana Burkard); Andi-Lyn Diaz (Armando Gonzales), Nicholas Aamoud (Katrina McMurray); great grandchildren Devin Diaz, Noah Diaz, Skylar Diaz, Kendall Diaz; sisters Linda Garza (Frank) and Patricia Huebenthal (Mike) and brother Joseph Rodriguez. In addition, she had numerous nieces and nephews and other loving family members and friends.

Carolyn during the early years of her marriage was a supportive USAF military wife and was stationed with Andy in Bermuda, Guam and at numerous stateside assignments. Carolyn worked for ten years with the South San I.S.D. as a school secretary, but was a homemaker for most of her adult life. She created artificial bonsai plants and was also skilled in working with other types of crafts. Carolyn also performed volunteer work with People Active in Community Effort (PACE) Neighborhood Association such as, conducting fundraisers to help provide turkeys and food baskets during Thanksgiving and Christmas to needy families. She fought a courageous battle with cancer for 21 years and did not allow this disease to control her life. Carolyn was the matriarch of the family and was always available to help her family and friends. She always had a positive attitude, smile on her face and never met a stranger. She loved to play bunco, bingo and enjoyed listening to fifties and sixties music. Carolyn helped many individuals in the community and at the end of her life donated her corneas to help two individuals to restore their sight. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the American Cancer Society in her honor.
