“ I met Carolyn in journalism class at Edison High School and quickly formed a bond over love of the Rolling Stones! We spent many a night out listening to live music somewhere and of course Mickey Free morphing into The Infidels. She was such a lovely person with a beautiful spirit. I enjoyed catching up with her in the last few years and watching Jack grow into the little man that he is. My thoughts are with all of her family.

“ I remember the time I found my cousin in one of my classes at UTSA . She was the first family member I had for a class. I thought it was so neat. One time I had to miss class for whatever reason,, she offer her notes the next class, I found out later how important that class I miss was because a quarter of the final was based on the notes she took. We spent time studying together throughout the semester, we talked and shared our dreams of becoming a teachers. On the day of final we ended about the same time gave each other a hug and wonder if we would have another class again. She was so special. I will miss her. “ Sue, as we called her, is our first cousin. Her dad was my mother’s younger brother. Sue was 10 years younger than me. As a teenager, I would babysit Sue and Teresita (Tess). Sue was always so quiet and sweet. We will never forget you Sue. We are sad that you had to leave us at such a young age. But I know you are free of pain and I am sure that your Daddy and Grandma Teresa were at those pearly gates to welcome you home. Until we meet again... Love you, Olga M.Hernandez and Frank Hernandez, Jr.

“ When my mom called to tell me about Sue’s death, I cried because she was taken away from us at the young age of 58 and because I loved my beautiful cousin. One of the things that I always admired about Sue was her personality. She genuinely had a loving and caring disposition about her that radiated clearly at family gatherings even at a very young age. I remember how she would share her paper dolls, dolls and toys with my younger sisters so they could play make-believe and have fun together. Sue, coined the phrase, “No prima/cousin, left behind.” She loved all of us dearly especially, her husband Chris, her son, Dillion and her grandson, Jack. May God’s blessings be yours in heaven. God bless and angels all around you.

“ My times with Carolyn Sue were as young kids in San Antonio as I learned about my family. She always came across as a kind person with a big heart. I am sad that Carolyn Sue had to leave us.
