

Carolyn L. Ligon Hunter

May 1, 1949 - September 19, 2004

Carolyn Lee Ligon Hunter, devoted wife, mom, sister, aunt and friend was born on May 1, 1949 to Herman and Memory Ligon. Carolyn was a lifelong resident of San Antonio who graduated from Robert E. Lee High School in 1967, Carolyn attended Texas Tech University where she met her husband of 34 years Kirk Earl Hunter. Together Carolyn and Kirk raised their two children, Kristin and Kevin. Carolyn was very involved in her children's daily lives, spending numerous hours at various sporting events, organizing and hosting school functions, and always providing unending support. She loved all people and took great joy in talking with and entertaining her and her family's many friends. Carolyn was a colorful person whose spirit was embodied in the many decorative floral and ornamental arrangements which she created for her home and her friends. Carolyn was a volunteer with the San Antonio Botanical Society and a life long member of Christ Episcopal Church. She is survived by her husband Kirk Hunter, mother Memory Ligon, father Herman Ligon, daughter Kristin Hunter Chad Shimaitis, son Kevin Hunter, sister Connie Richard Reyes, brother Herman Ligon III, brother-in-law Monte Kelly Hunter, brother-in-law Craig Karen Hunter, uncle and aunt Joe Phyllis Ligon, father and mother-in-law Earl Marilyn Hunter, 4 nieces, 3 nephews, and her beloved pets Sophie, Bucky and Tabby. The family extends a sincere thank you to Carolyn's dearest friends, Carol Putnam and Barbara Hudson for their consistent support and loyal friendship.
