

Carolyn "Jeannie" Jean Hewitt

October 29, 1940 - June 11, 2019

We are rejoicing, through our tears, that Jeannie has been called home today, June 11, 2019. She was born in Edinburg, Texas on October 29, 1940, married April 3, 1958 (for 28 years to Thomas Hewitt, Sr.), and spent her life as a loved mother, grandmother and caregiver. She is survived by her five children: Tammy Dresner, Terri (Richard) Wenzel, Tracy (Bob) Merritt, Thomas (Christie) Hewitt, Jr., Darrell (Jeannine) Hewitt, 13 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren, and 2 great-great-grandchildren. Jeannie loved her family. She loved Texas, a good thunderstorm, the sun, sitting on her backyard patio, a spirited poker game, and a great, salty margarita!

What we'll remember about "Mom," "Grandma," "Jeannie" is that she lived modestly and loved boldly; she cherished family gatherings and had a compulsive need to "count off" everyone in attendance; she hated having her picture taken, but would allow a camera to flash at a most opportune moment; she offered her opinions as unquestionable fact; she considered a good poker game as valuable as breathing air; she loved that her brothers loved fishing; she loved that her sisters were her soul companions; she made an envious plate of biscuits and gravy; she'd give away anything for just one foot rub; she loved almonds, orange slices and pink wafer cookies; she loved really good jokes and really good movies; she loved the Dollar Store, Walmart and Taco Cabana; she snored like a bear, cared like an angel, and loved her grandchildren more than life itself.

“ When I was little I was terrified by Aunt Jeannie she ran a tight ship, but through the years of growing up she showed her love, she made curtains for my room when I was 13 , when mom couldn,t afford them, then making blankets for my baby and passing them on to my daughter, these jesters have always meant alot to me.....after that we became close, I am so sorry for my cousins, but I do believe she is in a better place...all my love to the kids, grand kids and great grand kids...

“ We had a love hate relationship but no matter what we always made up. I loved her dearly and will miss her every day. I was happy I got to celebrate her birthday one last time. I know she is with my mom and Uncle Butchie, laughing and having margaritas.
