PATIN

Carolyn Jenner Patin born in San Antonio TX to George and Ruby Jenner, attended St. Michaels Catholic School in San Antonio TX. Her father George Jenner and family started Jenner Candy Co., later because of health, sold it to the Judson brothers. Her grandparents, Rudolph and Eliza Ann Keilmann owned the area which is now known as Stinson Airport, Brook Field and part of the land of the now State Hospital. Carolyn's uncle William Bill Keilmann had the Horn Palace near the intersection of Presa and Military Drive, then after his death was sold to the Frederick Family who started the old Buck Horn Saloon. Carolyn and James A. Patin, Sr. had no children together but were married 26 years and were both very active in the Elks Lodge 216 in the early 1980's. Carolyn was an oil executive secretary and an Ex Miss Oil. She is survived by her husband, Jim Patin; daughter, Yvonne Estrada John; grandsons, Isaiah and Brandon; cousins, Connie Johnston and Darlene Gaddy and other cousins. Thank you to Vista Care Hospice for their care of Carolyn.
