

Casey Landon Asher

November 18, 1984 - August 21, 2023

On Monday, August 21st, 2023, Casey Landon Asher, passed away at the age of 38 in San Antonio.

He was born in San Antonio, Texas on November 18th, 1984. He was the devoted son of Velma Loanna Asher and Archie Meriel Asher Jr. and loving brother to siblings; Carrie, Crystal and Cody.

Casey received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Graphic Design from the University of the Incarnate Word in San Antonio and a Master of Fine Arts degree in Photography from the New York Film Academy in Los Angeles. Had the continuation of higher education not come with expenses, he would have pursued everything his heart desired to learn. Instead, he showed willingness to learn and excel in any job he attained. From as early as age 16, he has held numerous jobs; SeaWorld, Walmart, Hobby Lobby, Home Depot, Lowe's, and most recently a Crew Lead for TriSmart Solar. But, the job he loved most of all, his true passion, was a Photographer.

Like an astronaut exploring the vastness of space, Casey documented and shared his findings with the us through the medium of the photograph. From extreme closeups of the tiniest insects, to the black lit canopy with holes punched in it known as the the Cosmos; Casey developed his keen eye and wanderlust style; capturing the worlds he explored with his family and friends as he saw them. With his creativity and acute attention to detail, his work sparked the imagination of anyone who saw them. in other words... A Master of Photography.

Casey was a stoic soul. A true version of the strong and silent type; instilling selflessness, warmth, honesty, protection, compassion and diligence to everyone he knew. While he wasn't hard at work, he enjoyed the finer and healthier things in life. Like Remy from Ratatouille, he "Only-wanted-the good stuff."; artisan coffee and cold brew, sandwiches, craft beer, whiskey and all sweets, particularly tiramisu. He was a collector of all types of pop-culture, particularly 80's influenced; including vinyl records, movies, Nintendo video games; (all things Zelda), tools, books, instruments, electronics, beanies, plaid shirts, Converse and some of the coolest graphic shirts you've ever seen. When he wasn't at home surrounding himself in Harry Potter, David Bowie, Trent Reznor, or woodworking shows, he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. Traveling, exploring, building things with his hands, working out, hiking, eating, drinking, seeing and quoting movies, playing games, singing music of all genres, and using his monkey body to traverse just about anything. Casey was was a strong hugger, a smart student, a loyal companion, a fierce, fierce friend, a sweet nephew, a goofy cousin, a loving Godfather, an inspiring brother, and a dutiful son.

Casey has reunited with his late father Archie Meriel Asher Jr.. He is now a Shepard of God watching over us and filling our hearts with patience, joy, kindness, creativity, silence and love. He is survived by his mother Velma and his three siblings: Carrie, Crystal, and Cody; brother-in-law Gilbert, and Godson Kanan; his aunts and uncles: Ronnie and Wayne, Gary, Edna and Eddie, Linda, Lora; and several cousins; Amy (Chad), Kimberly (Joey), Robert, Clinton, Kate, Jason (Ashley), Alexander and Aric.

“ Casey and I have never met, though I know of him because our first and last names are the same.

Casey has a website, <https://www.caseyasher.com>. I learned of his website when I was creating my own personal portfolio website and remember being so miffed that he got the .com domain and that I had to settle for .info. His site always (and still!) remains high in the search rankings for "casey asher". For a few months during a job hunt, I was optimizing my site to try and get my site to that number 1 search result and it felt like a competition. In a way, I feel that our websites have caused us to cross paths.

I'm saddened to learn of his passing.

“ My sweet cousin, Casey. It's hard to find the words for how much I'll miss you. You were taken from us way too soon and my heart is broken. I can't believe this is even real.

I will hold on to my favorite memories of us, talking about our love of Converse and movies, 'nerding' out together, taking macro photos of giant grasshoppers at Eddie's property, every holiday and the shenanigans we had, every laugh. Your amazing photography inspired me to take better photos and try to capture the beauty of the world like you did.

I miss you and your hugs so so much already. I love you cousin. You're in my heart forever.

“ What do I do now, Casey?

Funny that it still hadn't quite hit me until I realized I wasn't seeing your name. It always popped up on Instagram when I looked at videos that made me smile - "liked by Casey Asher." It was a way of staying in touch with you. We always liked the same things. I could picture you smiling with me. Laughing, just like I was. It felt like a poke from you. A reminder. I haven't seen that in days. That hit hard.

People drift apart, but I've never forgotten. Talking, we would have picked up right where we left off. I remember so many things. We spent years together. The last time we talked, your breakup, helping you deal. Being there for you. It felt warm. Like you.

I love you now and I loved you then. Our friends are all broken over you. It can't be right. Not you. Not like this.

We love you. I know how much you loved your family, and I know they adored you right back. All we can do is keep going knowing you're not there now. Knowing the world has a hole.

You were my friend. You'll always be my friend. Thank you for the years.

“ Sweet, caring little brother. My heart hurts so much. I’m going to miss your daily texts of funny videos or some new delicious snack. Your special little wrapping of gifts. Your tiny little writing on the heartfelt cards you gave. The random silly dances. Watching you play with Kanan. Your love of small animals. Drinking your perfectly made cold brew coffee with your simple syrup. I could go on and on. Rest now Casey. We love you and miss you terribly. Give Dad an extra tight hug for us. ❤️

“ I can't comprehend you being gone, my heart hurts so much. You were such an amazing friend. Waking up every day hearing from you made my days worth waking up for. It was such a privilege to know you Casey and I'm happy you were a part of my life. You touched so many people's lives in a positive way, such an amazing soul. Every time I binge the Lord of the rings I'll make sure to save you a seat. Rest easy Casey, till I see you again. 😊

"I wish it need not have happened in my time," said Frodo.

"So do I," said Gandalf, "and so do all who live to see such times. But that is not for them to decide. All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given us."
