“ To our live time friend, Comadre Minnie you will be greatly missed. You saw us all grow up even my grandchildren what a void it shall be. No more pain may you be resting in Gods heavenly peace! Until we see each other again. Save a place for us!

“ My Tia...my godmother you were the sweetest most gentle soul I've ever met. You took such good care of me since I was a baby...you loved me and spoiled me oh so much. When I was younger you would always say you weren't going to make it to see me turn 15 and you did then you said you wouldn't make it to see me graduate high school and you did and after that you swore you wouldn't be around to see me get married and you did. So many milestones you were apart of and I am forever grateful that God chose me to be apart your wonderful life. I love you so so so much Tia ❤️ I'll miss you everyday for the rest of my life.
