“ Aunt Catherine was my very favorite aunt - and I have a lot of them! She laughed easily and was always hospitable, even when her 5 nieces and 1 nephew descended into her home from South Texas, causing chaos and bedlam. She even put us up when we were refugees of Hurricane Beulah in 1967, feeding us and never complaining during our week-long stay. She was a great cook, and seamstress. I'll never forget when Monica and I were given hand-sewn satin and velvet gowns for our Barbie dolls. They were exquisite and some of my most treasured possessions as a child. She seemed to love family gatherings and Her laughter was infectious. I know her sweet spirit lives on in all those she touched.
