

Catherine Amsler Smith

December 4, 1929 - August 14, 2014

Catherine Amsler Smith entered into eternal rest with her Lord on August 14, 2014. Born December 4, 1929 to Constance Smallwood and Marcus John Amsler, she attended San Antonio schools, graduating from St. Mary's Hall with honors. After 2 years at Hollins College in Roanoke, Virginia, she graduated in 1951 from UT Austin with a BA in English. She taught English one year at Incarnate Word High School and then spent 18 years teaching at Pat Neff Middle School in NISD. After retirement, she served as a volunteer at Bible Study Fellowship Headquarters and at Easter Seal Auxiliary. Survivors include her sons, Sterling and Randolph, and their wives Jill and Gayle, one granddaughter Sarah, her great-grandsons Austin and Gage, and long time best friend, Margaret Myers.
