Catrina Marie von Muldau-Cabriales

June 11, 1975 – June 28, 2012

Catrina passed away to be with her Lord on June 28, 2012 after a life-long courageous fight for life. She fought her entire life to make it to the next day and even as she was dying, her concern was only for those she was leaving behind. She was preceded in death by her mother Joanne von Muldau. She is survived by her husband, Bartolo, father, Andreas von Muldau and brothers Aaron Delia and Sean Martha. She was a shining example of sincerity and love for those she came in contact with and will be remembered for her open, caring, generous heart with an infectious and photogenic smile, living life to the fullest and relishing every moment. Catrina was a loving wife, daughter, sister and friend and we were fortunate to have been a part of her brief life. She will be greatly missed. Rest in peace until we meet again. ¡Vaya con Dios y descansa en paz mi linda...mi amor! May you finally find peace without pain, smiling and laughing to your heart's content. Visitation will begin on Sunday, July 15, 2012 at 5:00 p.m. with a rosary to be recited at 7:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Funeral services will be held on Monday, July 16, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. at the funeral home. Interment will follow at Mission Burial Park South. For personal acknowledgement you may sign the guest book at www.missionparks.com in the obituary section.
