Cecil, age 82, was born in Unity, Maine and youngest of five siblings was known as Caleb in his hometown. As a young man he excelled in all sports and was a sports enthusiast throughout his life. His favorite hobbies were fishing, gardening, and woodworking. Cecil served in the U.S.A.F. for twenty-one years and retired the rank of Tech. Sargent, with a second retirement from Smithson Valley High School. Josephine, age 83, was born in San Antonio and also the youngest of five siblings, known as Phine by her family. Her hobbies included cooking, sewing, and crafts, but her love was classical music and entertaining everyone with her piano-playing. Her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, always trying to teach them to play the piano. Josie retired as Executive Chef to General McDermitt at USAA. Not only was she an amazing cook, she was also a top sales lady in various dress shops, and an entrepreneur having owned a magic shop and thrift stores.
